CCDS is committed to training all new employees in abuse identification and prevention.

Reporting Suspected Child Abuse by Mandated Reporters

Social Services Law designates certain categories of staff who work in agencies that provide services to children as mandated reporters. For CCDS, mandated reporters include physicians, social workers, registered nurses, psychologists, care manager, community support staff, community support professionals, direct support professionals, IHBS, BIS, FI, and broker.

CCDS requires mandated reporters to report instances of suspected child abuse or neglect when they are presented with reasonable cause to suspect child abuse or neglect involving a child who receives services from CCDS.

If a child is suspected of being abused or neglected by a custodian while receiving services in a program operated or certified by OPWDD (including, for example, CCDS IRAs), the allegation is to be reported to the Justice Center, following the procedures applicable to the report of an allegation of abuse or neglect of an individual of any age, as prescribed in the CCDS Incident Management Standard. If the child receives services under a non-certified program (including, for example, Care Management and Community Supports), or if it is unknown whether the child is receiving any services, the allegation is to be reported to the SCR.

When reporting to the SCR all mandated reporters with knowledge or suspicion of abuse or maltreatment must personally make the report.

When reporting to the Justice Center, the mandated reporter must personally report any witnessed or suspected abuse or mistreatment unless they are aware that another reporter has notified the Justice Center and they have been included in that report.

Procedure for Making a Report to the State Central Register

If a mandated reporter has reasonable cause to suspect abuse or neglect of a child, the reporter is responsible for calling the State Central Register (SCR) at 1-800-635-1522. If it is believed that the child is in immediate danger, the staff person will contact the police immediately. When making the call to the SCR, the reporter is responsible for obtaining the "Call ID" from the SCR. Following the call, the reporter will contact their supervisor and/or the on-call person to inform them that the call has been made. In turn, the on-call person will notify CCDS Quality Assurance staff.

In the event that more than one staff have reasonable cause to suspect that a child has been abused or neglected, only one staff member needs to call the SCR, unless other staff members have knowledge of different instances of abuse or neglect.

Within 48 hours, the mandated reporter and their supervisor, in collaboration with QA, is responsible for completing the LDSS 2221-A Form (available at <http://www.ocfs.state.ny.us/main/forms/cps/>) and sending the original completed Form to the Department of Social Services in the county in which the child lives.

Agency Response to Allegations of Abuse

CCDS and CCDS employees report, and, as required, investigate and or respond to all incidents which are allegations of abuse or neglect of individuals of any age in accordance with 14 NYCRR Parts 624 and 625.

In situations where there is reasonable cause to suspect that a child has been abused or neglected in a "Familial Situation," and a report to the Justice Center or OPWDD is not otherwise required, the definitions of abuse and neglect describing the situations in which a report to the SCR is warranted differ from the definitions applicable under 14 NYCRR Parts 624 and 625.

Definition of Child Abuse and Neglect in a Familial Setting

An abused or neglected child in a familial setting is a child less than 18 years of age whose parent or other person legally responsible for his/her care:

- inflicts or allows to be inflicted upon the child physical injury by other than accidental means and such action causes significant harm or creates a substantial risk of significant harm;
- creates or allows to be created a substantial risk of serious physical injury to the child by other than accidental means;
- commits a sexual offense against the child or allows, permits, or encourages the child to engage in any sex offense;
- abandons the child;
- fails to provide adequate food, shelter, or clothing;
- fails to obtain appropriate medical care; or
- inflicts excessive corporal punishment.

[The definition above is a summary. Please see Social Services Law § 412 for the full definition.]

Screening

All new employees, volunteers, interns, consultants and vendors who have the potential for regular and substantial contact with individuals with disabilities in a certified program operated by CCDS will be screened through the SCR in accordance with the requirements of the Justice Center and OPWDD.

Until the SCR informs CCDS of the results of the screening, the employee, volunteer, intern, consultant or vendor will not have unsupervised contact with individuals with disabilities.

If the SCR notifies CCDS that the subject of the screening has been indicated in a report of child abuse or neglect, CCDS will determine, on the basis of the information it has available to CCDS, whether to hire the individual, volunteer, intern, consultant or vendor. If a decision is made to hire the individual, CCDS will maintain a written record of the specific reasons why the individual was determined to be an appropriate candidate.

Training

As part of their orientation, all new employees will receive training in abuse and neglect and CMG: Safe Haven/Safe Environments Training or similar training as determined by CCDA. All employees will receive annual refresher training in abuse identification and prevention.
